APEC 2021
a virtual welcome to New Zealand

There has never been a more important time to join together. As we plan for recovery from Covid-19, the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) will play an important role in helping us all rebuild and recover.

Like never before, the scale of the challenges the world faces today requires us all to work together in the interests of the greater good. APEC 2021 will create an environment where connections can be strengthened, and APEC’s important work can continue.

The way we respond as a region to today’s challenges will be felt for generations to come. APEC economies will progress work for a long-lasting recovery for the entire region at APEC 2021.

2021 is the first time a full APEC year will be hosted virtually.

This means APEC’s work responding to Covid-19’s impact on the region’s economy, and progressing sustainable and inclusive trade can continue.

New Zealand is committed to creating the space for a successful year of digital diplomacy.
